- Woman:* Hi, dad! It's Betty. I'm going to Linda's party this afternoon. Could you take me there in your car?
- Man:* Sorry, I'm quite busy today. Why don't you take a bus?
- Woman:* It will take me nearly an hour to get there.
- Man:* So go there by tram. It'll be faster.
- Woman:* But there aren't any tram stops near Linda's house.
- Man:* OK. Then wait for me at the bus stop near our house. I'll pick you up at 7 and drive you there.

Man: Hi Sue! It's Michael. I'm calling to tell you that I finally moved house. My flat is on the third floor. I've got three big rooms now. There aren't any trees nearby, but there are some flowers and bushes so it's nice and green around here. You must visit me at the weekend.

Tekst 3.

- Woman:* How was your football match, Adam?
- Man:* Oh mum, it was fantastic! We won 3 to 1.
- Woman:* Did you score any goals?
- Man:* Well, what do you think? Sure, I did. The coach says I'm the best player on the team. But it wasn't easy. They scored the first goal but then Tom kicked the ball and scored for us. And I was lucky to score the other two. We're the champions of our school league.
- Woman:* That's great news! I'm so proud of you.

Tekst 4.

- Woman:* You're late again, Jamie.
- Man:* I'm sorry, Miss. My mum didn't wake me up on time.
- Woman:* You should have an alarm clock. I'm afraid I'll have to call your parents. You've been late too many times. Sit down now and take out your book. We've already started reading the text.

Woman: Brian, it's mum. I have to stay at work a little bit longer today, so could you do some shopping on your way home? I know you don't have much money on you but it's just some meat and four tomatoes. I've already bought the things we need for dinner. I think I'll be able to leave here in an hour or so. See you soon!

Man: Hi, Amy!

Woman: Hello, Tony! What a nice new coat!

Man: Oh, I wear it just because it's a gift from my older brother, Sam. He thinks that if he loves long warm coats, everybody else enjoys wearing them as well. I prefer denim jackets. I really like them because they are comfortable.

Woman: Well, my sister, Emily, who's really into fashion, says she would never put a denim jacket on. She says it doesn't go well with the designer cotton T-shirts she keeps wearing. She has over fifty in her wardrobe. Can you imagine?

Man: That reminds me of my friend, Gina, who's crazy about jeans, not just any pairs of jeans but the ones that are really, really tight. She doesn't care if they go well with her jackets or coats. The last time we were talking she told me she had a collection of over twenty pairs of them!

Woman: I don't think girls look nice in slim fit jeans. Anyway, in cold weather like today, I think there's nothing better than a warm woollen sweater just like mine.

Man: Let's now move on to the king's private rooms, they are called the private quarters. The room on your left was the king's chamber, which means the room where he slept. The king's bed burned down in the great fire in 1605 but all the other furniture is from this castle. The beautiful desks, chairs and the amazing crystal mirror were given to the king as a wedding gift. Luckily, they were not destroyed in the fire and they are here today as they were when the king was still alive. The room on the right is the dining room...
