

Personality adjectives

Read and complete the sentences. Fill in the gaps. Use the adjectives in the box.

brave confident funny hard-working impatient lazy mean moody polite rude serious shy sociable talkative

1. Mathew always says 'please' and 'thank you' and he doesn't use bad language. He's very
2. Marta wants to buy a ticket for a concert. She doesn't mind waiting in this long queue but her little sister hates the idea – she's really
3. Stephen doesn't like talking to new people. He's quite
4. If you want to borrow money from Peter, forget it! He's really
5. He always knows what to say and what to do. He must be a person.
6. My girlfriend is She can be very cheerful one minute and extremely angry the next.
7. Paulo comes back very late from work. Then he studies until late at night. He's really
8. She likes giving presents. She says it's better than getting them. She's
9. Maria talks a lot. She's
10. My younger brother doesn't study at all. He doesn't help at home either. He's so
11. Jessica loves meeting her friends. She's very 12. He knows how to make me laugh. He's 13. My uncle works as a stuntman. He must be very
14. Mark and Tom are twins. Mark is really nice but Tom can be quite to me sometimes.
15. Sue never smiles. She's extremely