

Topic: What do you know about honey bees

Ex 1. Honey bee body parts

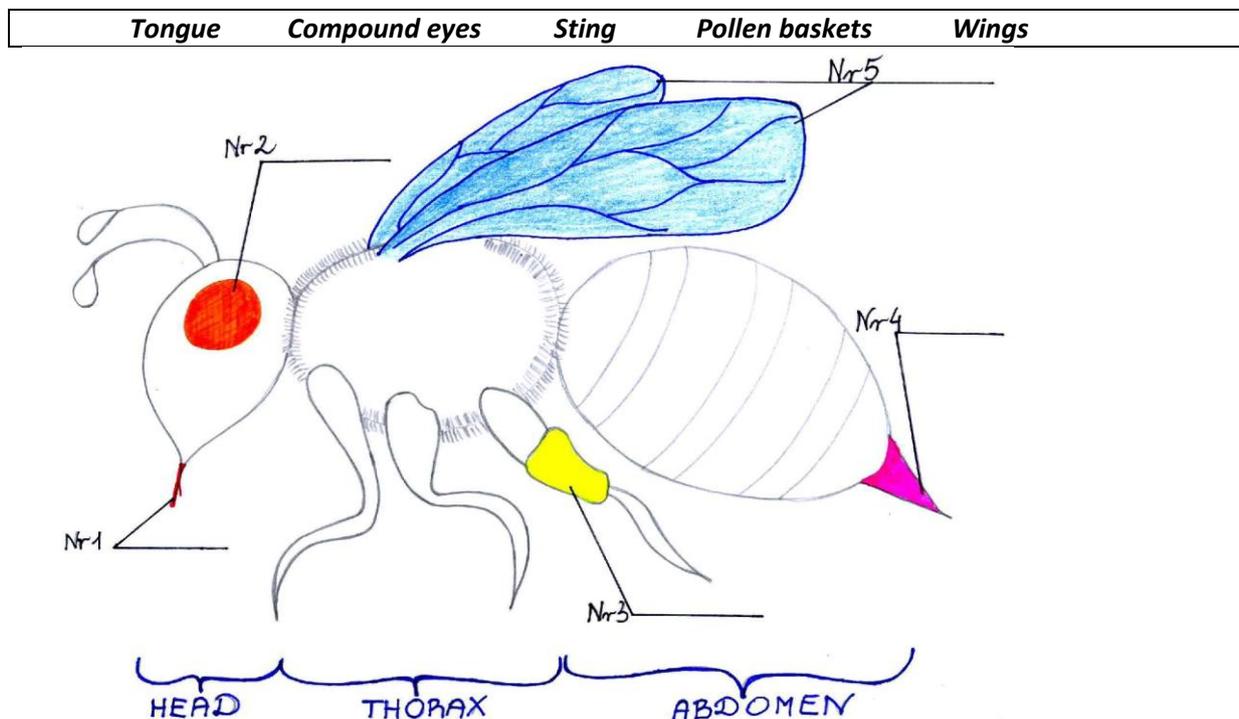

a) Look at the poster on the board and answer the question:

Which animal group do honey bees belong to?

b) Look at the picture of a honey bee body parts below and analyse the main parts of the body.
Answer the following questions:

1. What is the largest part of the bee called?
2. Where do the legs attach?
3. Where do the wings attach?
4. Which part has got eyes?

c) Look at the picture provided. Name the bee body parts presented and numbered in the picture.
Use the phrases in the box:

d) Now read the definitions and match them with the correct body parts of the bee in the picture.

- Nr – They are hairy parts of the third pair of legs. They collect pollen, so they get usually yellow or orange.
- Nr – It collects nectar and passes it on to the stomach.
- Nr – They can differentiate colours except red and black.
- Nr – It is a bee's weapon. It and other parts of internal organs are pulled out of the bee causing its death.
- Nr – They enable the bee to fly distances up to eight miles.

Ex. 3 Honey bees as excellent pollinators and honey makers

Read all the questions below. Then stand up, walk around classroom, read all the texts put on the wall and find the answers in the texts. Write down the answers.

1. How many times must a bee fly to gather nectar for one teaspoon of honey?

.....

2. What are the three types of bees which live in a hive?

.....

3. How is the queen different from other bees?

.....

4. Who feeds the drones?

.....

5. What function do the drones serve?

.....

6. How long do worker bees live?

.....

7. What duties is a female worker involved in? Name at least four.

.....

Homework

Do the Honey Bee Crossword. An online version of the crossword can help you. You can find it at <http://angielskipodrodze.pl/2016/01/01/what-do-you-know-about-bees/>

Good luck 😊