

Phrasal verbs with 'break', 'come' and 'carry' – homework

Ex. 1.

Study the example sentences and then match the phrasal verbs with their Polish equivalents in the box.

załamać się	rozstać się z kimś, zerwać z kimś	dołączyć do kogoś
włamać się gdzieś	popsuć się, zepsuć się	pojawiać się, zbliżać się
zrealizować coś, wykonać coś (zwykle mimo trudności)		kontynuować, iść/jechać dalej break into something – 1. .....

Last night my sister saw two burglars break into our neighbour's house. She called the police and they caught them immediately.

break up with somebody – 1. .....

Don't leave her alone now. She's upset because Tom has just broken up with her.

break down

- 1. ....

This car is always breaking down. I really need to buy a new one.

- 2. ....

She broke down after her husband's death.

come along

- 1. ....

I'm looking for someone to come along to help out. There is still a lot to be done until Friday.

- 2. ....

The next part of the story will come along soon.

carry on – 1. .....

She carried on asking questions.

carry something through – 1. .....

It's a difficult task but we believe you will carry it through.

Ex. 2.

Read and complete the text. Use the phrasal verbs in Ex. 1.

Jacob's Story

Two years ago Jacob wanted to go to the forest for a picnic with his friend Mark, but he was afraid that his old van would 1. ..... on the side of the road. Mark told him that if this happened they would 2. ..... walking to the nearest repair station for help. Jacob knew they would want to eat some snacks to 3. ..... the journey. His friend told him to 4. ..... his girlfriend's cookie jar, but knew she would 5. ..... him if he did such a thing. He decided the best thing to do was to ask her to 6. ..... and bring the cookies with her. It was a good idea. They all had so much fun on the trip and ate everything in 10 minutes.

Ex. 3.

Choose two phrasal verbs in Ex. 1 and make up sentences with these phrasal verbs.

.....
.....