Ex. 1 Phrasal verbs presentation

Split up the learners into small groups (preferably six groups). Hand the worksheets out to your students and ask them to read the example sentences in Ex. 1. In groups they are supposed to guess the meaning of the phrasal verbs used in each sentence. To make it easier, let them translate all the sentences orally but write down only the translation of the phrasal verbs.

Ex. 2 Phrasal verbs practice – Jacob's Story

Students can work individually or in pairs, depending on the number of smartphones and tablets they have. First they complete the Jacob's Story which is available at:

After they have finished, play the audio with the story read by a native speaker and let all the students who made any mistakes do the activity once again.

Finally, ask some students to read aloud the text of the story.

Ex. 3 Phrasal verbs practice – phrasal verbs puzzle

Students can work individually or in pairs, depending on the number of smartphones and tablets they have. They do the puzzle activity which asks them to make pairs of the English phrasal verbs and their Polish equivalents. It is available at the same webpage:

Ex. 4 Phrasal verbs production – making up sentences with the phrasal verbs

Students work in groups again. A representative of each group takes a slip with one phrasal verb. Students in all the groups make up a sentence with their phrase. * Set the time limit (3-4minutes).

*If your class is more advanced, you may ask them to make up more than one sentence or even a story.

Homework

Give out the homework worksheets with two exercises to do. These are the same exercises students worked on in class. However, in that case, the learners are supposed to work on them individually at home.
