

School grass skirt competition

Gr.

Playing truant is allowed in schools.

If you want to go to university, you must fail the Matura exam.

In our school we mustn't wear school uniforms, so every day I put on different clothes.

When you study and live at the same place it means that you go to a state school.

If you want to buy and eat something hot at school you should go to the school library .

In a single-sex school there are both boys and girls.

I want to improve my English. What do you think should I do?

Answers:

Playing truant is not allowed in schools.

If you want to go to university, you must pass the Matura exam.

In our school we don't have to wear school uniforms, so every day I put on different clothes.

When you study and live at the same place it means that you go to a boarding school.

If you want to buy and eat something hot at school you should go to the school canteen .

In a mixed school there are both boys and girls.

I want to improve my English. What do you think I should do?