

My First Advertising Campaign

Imagine you run a business and sell everything people need for their summer holiday. Now, look at the picture below to see the item you are supposed to sell. Your task is to prepare a perfect advertisement for this product. Remember that your advertisement should:

1. be simple and entertaining
2. get the attention of potential customers
3. consist of at least three sentences
4. use the following words or phrases: piggy bank, save money, afford something/afford to do something, awesome

My First Advertising Campaign

Imagine you run a business and sell everything people need for their summer holiday. Now, look at the picture below to see the item you are supposed to sell. Your task is to prepare a perfect advertisement for this product. Remember that your advertisement should:

1. be simple and entertaining
2. get the attention of potential customers
3. consist of at least three sentences
4. use the following words or phrases: made from something, protect against something, excellent

