

The	leaves	change to
red,	yellow,	and brown.
The	weather	gets
chilly.		We
start	to wear	long
sleeved	shirts,	long
pants,	and	sweaters.
The	leaves	fall
off	the	trees.
Animals	store	up
food	for	winter.
Americans	celebrate	Thanksgiving
in	autumn.

People	rake	the
fallen	leaves	in
their	gardens.	We
often	make	apple
or	pumpkin	pies.
Children	collect	chestnuts
and	acorns.	People
pick	mushrooms	in
the	forest.
Farmers	harvest	their
crops.		Many
birds	go	south
for	the	winter.
